Studiosus Incoming is benefitting from the experience, the reputation, and the market power of the mother company.

Why Studiosus

We look beyond destinations

Due to the strong market position of the mother company, Studiosus Incoming has gained comprehensive expertise in serving international customers throughout Europe.

This is actually the key point that makes Studiosus Incoming a bit different: Based in Munich, the company is not only an expert for Bavaria, Austria, and Switzerland but also for all other European destinations.

If a client plans a border-crossing tour, there is no need to combine the services of different agencies. With Studiosus Incoming, the client gets the entire tour in Europe from one single source.

Studiosus is a one-stop service provider for both Leisure and MICE groups to Europe.

We are 100% aware of our source market's needs and product preferences and can tailor correspondent travel arrangements for mono and multiple destination tours. We aim to offer fair pricing based on quality, not dumping prices, which benefit both our customers and service providers. We believe in equitable and fair partnerships.

The Studiosus Incoming team is an expert in organizing meetings, incentives, team building, and other events.

The team will take care of the theme, location, entertainment, and catering for the event. In fact, virtually every detail of your event will be tailored to your specifications and budget. We provide expertise for your travel businesses with;

- Individual concepts
- Long time experiences
- Realization in line with budget
- Professional partners
- Innovative Ideas
- Personal contact & assistance

These key features are the basis and attitude on how to deal with ourselves and other people.
